- Assets of the Republics of Serbia and Montenegro and of their nationals have been frozen;

- A ban has been imposed on the granting of permission to take off from, land in or overfly the territory of Luxembourg for aircraft which intend to land in the territory of the Republics of Serbia and Montenegro or which have taken off from their territory and the provision of technical assistance to such aircraft and maintenance servicing of components for such aircraft have been prohibited;

- All technical and scientific cooperation has been suspended, as has the provision of any services benefiting the Republics of Serbia and Montenegro or their residents.

In addition, on 1 June 1992 the European Community adopted regulation No. 1432/92 (EEC) and decision 92/285 (ECSC), which prohibit trade between the European Community and the Republics of Serbia and Montenegro. These regulations are automatically applicable to Luxembourg.
